363-14½-New. Club collecting tax from its members acts as government agent and has no right of action for taxes illegality imposed. 12F(2d)951.

363-14⅓-New. In executor's action to recover federal estate tax paid under protest, residuary legatees are the proper but not the necessary parties plaintiff. 14F(2d)616.

363-14¼-New. Plaintiff may set up ground of refund not specified in the claim for refund. 20F(2d)419.

363-14⅕-New. All heirs of decedent are proper parties plaintiff in an action to recover an estate tax paid. 21F(2d)460.

363-14⅙-New. While an income tax, imposed by the Revenue Act 1918, was a single tax on the entire net income of a corporation, the whole act would not fall because of inclusion in the gross income of income beyond congress' power to tax, nor would the tax be recoverable in only one proceeding. 27F(2d)994.

363-14⅐-New. Under a statute authorizing the commissioner to compromise a claim with advice and consent of the secretary of treasury and a filed opinion of the department solicitor, in the absence of the secretary's assent and filing of the solicitor's opinion neither the government nor the taxpayer are bound, although ratified by the commissioner in making an additional assessment. 278US282, 49SCt129, 73Led379.

363-14⅛-New. Taxpayer's arrangement for deposit pending consideration of plea in abatement and subsequent release of deposit on payment precludes recovery on ground of collection after period of limitations. 37F(2d)986.

363-14⅑-New. Word "stayed" in statute providing for recovery of taxes paid after limitation period unless collection was stayed includes cases of delay from filing claim without formal stay. 38F(2d)239.

551-1 31F(2d)290.

551-6½-New. Noncompliance with the literal terms of the treasury department regulation requiring equipment of five thousand dollars for manufacturing purposes is not a ground for refusal of a permit to withdraw alcohol. 30F(2d) 503.

551-6⅓-New. The fact that applicant for a permit to withdraw alcohol for manufacturing purposes testified that he had never been arrested, although in fact he had some years before been arrested in connection with a labor dispute, has been held not a sufficient ground in itself to justify refusal of the permit. 30F(2d)503.

551-7½-New. To authorize refusal of a permit, the design or intent to use liquid malt in the manufacture of intoxicants must be asserted. 8F(2d)773.

551-7⅓-New. Such design or intent cannot be inferred from the intrinsic nature of the preparation or its adaptability therefor. 8F(2d)773.

551-7¼-New. Presiding officers cannot, in considering testimony of witnesses, remember his past experience with other permittees in the same business as applicant. 8F(2d)773.

551-7⅕-New. Reasonable ground to believe denial of renewal permit is necessary to prevent improper diversion is sufficient. 39F(2d)219.

699-81¼-New. General reputation of the place is admissible on the question of the owner's knowledge of the tenant's illegal use of the premises. 202 Iowa 1137, 211NW372.

699-81½-New. Proof is admissible of sales after filing of bill to show continuing nature of the offense. 16F(2d)595.

699-81⅝-New. Collateral inquiry into the mode in which evidence was obtained will not be allowed. 8F(2d)709.

699-81¾-New. Proof that defendant had been repeatedly convicted for violating the Prohibition Law warrants a presumption that such violations will continue unless injunctive relief is granted. 25 OhNPNS152.

699-81⅞-New. Insufficient evidence precludes closing of premises. 26F(2d)189.

699-81⅞-New. To forfeit a lease for maintaining a liquor nuisance, it is not enough to show guilt of the sublessee, but is sufficient to show that the lessee had such knowledge as a reasonable person would act upon. 24F(2d)786.

699-81⅞-New. Some actual notice must be fastened on the lessee, evidence merely raising a likelihood that he knew what was going on being insufficient. 24F(2d)786.

700–6½–New. Under some statutes the assessment of a mulct tax against property is authorized where the owner knew or had reason to know that it was being used as an intoxicating liquor nuisance. 204 Iowa147, 214NW550.

700–6⅓–New. Under some statutes a mulct tax can be imposed only where a permanent injunction issues enjoining the maintenance of a nuisance. 204 Iowa 144, 214NW610.

700–6¼–New. Although the evidence does not establish the keeping of a nuisance on premises, defendant may be enjoined from trafficking in intoxicating liquors where the evidence shows that he was a bootlegger and such relief is prayed for. 204 Iowa144, 214NW610.

700–7½–New. [§ 413a] 3. Dismissal. An action for injunction may not be deemed dismissed because of the fact that for a number of years the cause has remained quiescent and without appearance on the calendar and that during such time the citizen plaintiff has died and no substitution has been made. 200 Iowa580, 204NW292.

700–7⅓–New. A decree takes effect when defendant has knowledge thereof although it provides for a later issuance of the writ under seal of court. 318 Ill 230, 149NE297.

503–20½–New. Judgment is to be construed with reference to the issues it meant to decide. 13F(2d)394.

503–20⅓–New. In determining the meaning of a word, the courts must take into consideration their conjunction with other words and the purpose of their use. 14F(2d)284.

503–20¼–New. A court's interpretation of its own decree is binding on other courts; 82NH170, 131A441.

503–20⅕–New. but in absence of interpretation, other courts may be called upon to construe a decree, but the question does not thereby become one of local law. 82NH170, 131A441.

503–20⅙–New. Where a journal entry of judgment contains the words "It is by the court ordered, adjudged, and decreed," the order following such words is the final and controlling portion of the judgment of the court, and where it is clear and unambiguous, it must be given effect. 120Okl 13, 250 P117.

503–20⅐–New. Judgment which is plain and unambiguous leaves no room for construction. TexCommnA 1SW (2d)597.
